BEFORE THE SECURITIES COMMISSIONER

IN THE MATTER OF:
-------------------

ROBERT T. STEEN JR.,

Respondent

Case No. 10-11-1

ORDER GRANTING SUMMARY RELIEF

WHEREAS the Division of Securities has filed an administrative complaint in the above-captioned matter charging Robert T. Steen Jr. with a violation of the Rules and Regulations Pursuant to the Delaware Securities Act (the "Rules") and seeking relief thereunder;

WHEREAS the Division of Securities has moved the Securities Commissioner for a summary order under § 262 of the Rules permanently revoking and suspending any registration of Robert T. Steen Jr. to conduct business as a broker-dealer, broker-dealer agent, investment advisor, investment advisor representative, or any other business as an investment professional in the State of Delaware, and has demonstrated good cause therefor;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED this 19th of February 2013 that any registration of Robert T. Steen Jr. to conduct business as a broker-dealer, broker-dealer agent, investment advisor, investment advisor representative, or any other business as an investment professional in the State of Delaware, is permanently revoked and suspended.
