JOB OPENING

Opening Date: September 13, 2019

Closing Date: September 30, 2019

DEPUTY DIRECTOR (Assistant Unit Head/Deputy Attorney General)
Fraud and Consumer Protection Division
Medicaid Fraud Control Unit
New Castle County

Description of Duties:

The Delaware Department of Justice is seeking a Deputy Attorney General (“DAG”) for the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (“MFCU”) within the Fraud and Consumer Protection Division in New Castle County to serve as Deputy Director (Assistant Unit Head). Together with the Unit Director and Chief Investigator, the Assistant Unit Head manages a multidisciplinary team of 17 professionals responsible for identifying and prosecuting, both civilly and criminally, fraud by providers in the Medicaid system and medication diversion, financial exploitation, and patient abuse and neglect at facilities that receive Medicaid funding. The MFCU team includes Deputy Attorneys General, Special Investigators, auditors, a nurse analyst and three staff

The Deputy Director will be responsible litigating a statewide caseload of civil and criminal cases. The civil cases pertain to health care fraud and cases brought under the Delaware False Claims and Reporting Act. The criminal cases involve the prosecution of health care fraud, drug diversion, patient abuse and neglect and financial exploitation cases. The Deputy Director will serve as the State’s primary contact on the National Association of Medicaid Fraud Control Units (“NAMFCU”) Qui Tam Subcommittee and will manage the flow of updates and notices regarding active qui tam cases for the State. The DAG will also assist the Director in monitoring the status of settlements to facilitate their timely execution. The DAG may participate on global teams on behalf of the MFCU at the intake, investigation, litigation and settlement stages.

As an Assistant Unit Head, this individual will play an integral and substantial role in the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit’s handling of its wide variety of operational and administrative responsibilities. Participation in frequent internal weekly unit meetings, as well as attendance at meetings with external public and private stakeholders is required. There is considerable teamwork involved in identifying, investigating and litigating health care fraud. Candidates for the position must possess the ability to efficiently evaluate cases, determine case resolutions with minimal guidance, anticipate legal issues, demonstrate leadership qualities and exhibit substantial interpersonal skills. Candidates must demonstrate the ability to work with other Deputy Attorneys General, support staff, Court personnel and statewide professional partners. The Deputy Attorney General will be responsible for leading investigators and auditors throughout the investigation and prosecution of criminal and civil cases. Experience litigating Medicaid fraud, healthcare fraud and/or complex financial crimes is preferred. Delaware bar admission required. We seek an individual with a strong commitment to working in the public interest.
