Description of Duties:

The Delaware Department of Justice is seeking two exceptional and highly motivated attorneys to join the Investor Protection Unit in the Fraud & Consumer Protection Division in the New Castle County office as Deputy Attorneys General (“DAGs”). While the duties are similar for each DAG position, one is categorized as a Full-service employee and one is a Casual/Seasonal employee.

The Deputy Attorneys General will be part of the team responsible for enforcing the provisions of the Delaware Securities Act (6 Del. C. ch. 73), which regulates the offer and sale of securities and the activities of investment professionals in the State of Delaware. The Unit investigates and prosecutes (administratively, civilly, and criminally) violations of the Act and administers provisions of the Act relating to the registration and licensing of securities and investment professionals.

These are challenging positions that provide an opportunity to pursue large and complex investigations and cases against some of the best attorneys in the country. These DAGs should be able to work independently, be team players, and meet deadlines. Solid academic achievement, relevant work experience, and a familiarity with securities transactions and/or financial services is preferred. We seek individuals with a strong commitment to working in the public interest.
