

DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
JOB OPENING

Opening Date: July 26, 2021

Closing Date: August 9, 2021

DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL
Civil Division, Environmental Unit, New Castle County

The Civil Division seeks a Deputy Attorneys General (“DAG”) to be located in New Castle County with travel to Kent and Sussex Counties, as needed.

Candidates must be graduates with a degree from an accredited law school and be admitted as members of the Delaware Bar. A background in contracts and real property law, and natural resources law and environmental issues is preferred. Experience in litigation and administrative law, including regulatory practice, would be an asset in this position.

This DAG works within the Department of Justice’s Environmental Unit and serves as general legal counsel to the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control (“DNREC”). This DAG provides legal support to DNREC’s Division of Waste and Hazardous Substances, including the Brownfields Program, and represents DNREC before administrative boards and Delaware Courts. This DAG may also be called on to provide legal advice to other DNREC Divisions. Representation includes, but is not limited to, enforcement of environmental laws and permit violations through administrative actions and litigation, review of documents and contracts, and review of legislation and regulations.

Qualified Candidates must exhibit excellent written and oral communication skills; the ability to manage a diverse caseload; the ability to evaluate cases, determine resolutions, and identify and anticipate legal issues; and the ability to research accurately and effectively. Additionally, Candidates must have the ability and determination to learn and apply the relevant laws and court rules, including federal and state environmental laws and regulations. Candidates should also be able to develop good working relationships with other Deputy Attorneys General, support staff and Court personnel, as well as scientists, engineers, and other DNREC staff.
