

EXHIBIT 1

We represent Infosys McCamish Systems, LLC (“IMS”) and are writing to notify your Office of a compromise that affected the security of certain personal information relating to 10,609 Delaware residents. IMS is a processor and supports corporate and business market operations for certain organizations. By providing this notice, IMS does not waive any rights or defenses, including but not limited to rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Delaware law, the applicability of Delaware data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Notice of Data Event

On November 2, 2023, IMS became aware that certain IMS systems were encrypted by ransomware (the “Incident”). That same day, IMS launched an investigation with the assistance of leading third-party cybersecurity experts, retained through outside counsel, to undertake a full forensic analysis and determine the nature and extent of the compromise, secure its systems, and identify what information may have been affected and to whom it relates. Additionally, IMS notified law enforcement. Please note that the Incident has since been contained and remediated.

The in-depth cyber forensic investigation determined that unauthorized activity occurred between October 29, 2023, and November 2, 2023. Through the investigation, it was also determined that data was subject to unauthorized access and acquisition. With the assistance of third-party eDiscovery experts, retained through outside counsel, IMS proceeded to conduct a thorough and time-intensive review of the data at issue to identify the personal information subject to unauthorized access and acquisition and determine to whom the personal information relates. IMS has notified its impacted organizations of the Incident and of the compromise of any personal information pertaining to them.

Please also note that as part of its response to this Incident, IMS took steps to implement additional safeguards to further protect the security of its systems.

The information impacted varies by individual but includes some or all of the following: name, Social Security number, date of birth, medical treatment/record information, biometric data, email address and password, username and password, driver’s license number or state ID number, financial account information, payment card information, passport number, tribal ID number, and U.S. military ID number.

Notice to Delaware Residents

On June 27, 2024, IMS began providing written notice of the compromise to impacted individuals, which includes Delaware residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached hereto as Exhibit A. Please note that notification is being provided on behalf of IMS as a data owner and on behalf of impacted organizations that have requested IMS complete this notification on their behalf, as a data collector/third-party agent, as identified in Exhibit B. IMS also provided substitute notice of the Incident on June 27, 2024.

Other Steps Taken and to be Taken

Upon discovery of the Incident, IMS moved quickly to investigate and respond to the Incident, assess the security of its systems, and notify impacted organizations and individuals. IMS also reviewed its existing policies and procedures and implemented additional safeguards to further secure its systems and the information contained therein.

While the comprehensive data review was ongoing, we proactively offered twenty-four (24) months of complimentary credit monitoring to current customers for individuals associated with those customers. Although we are unaware of any instances since the Incident occurred in which the personal information has been fraudulently used, IMS is nevertheless offering impacted individuals complimentary credit monitoring for twenty-four (24) months and dedicated call center services as well as providing guidance on how to protect against identity theft and fraud, including advising individuals to report any suspected identity theft or fraud to their financial institutions. IMS is also providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, information on protecting against tax fraud, the contact details for the national credit reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you did not initiate or do not recognize. Look for information, such as home address and Social Security number that is not accurate. If you see anything you do not understand, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

Credit Freeze

You have the right to put a security freeze, also known as a credit freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact all three major consumer reporting agencies listed below.

You must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. The following information should be included when requesting a credit freeze:

- 1) Full name, with middle initial and any suffixes;
- 2) Social Security number;
- 3) Date of birth (month, day, and year);
- 4) Current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years;
- 5) Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill; and
- 6) Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency.

If you request a credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agencies have one (1) business day after receiving your request to place a credit freeze on your credit file report. If you request a lift of the credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agency must lift the freeze within one (1) hour. If you request a credit freeze or lift of a credit freeze by mail, then the credit agency must place or lift the credit freeze no later than three (3) business days after getting your request.

Fraud Alerts

You also have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert lasts 1-year and is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below. The agency you contact will then contact the other two credit agencies.
